Convents and the Body Politic in Late Renaissance Venice. By Jutta Gisela Sperling. Women in Culture and Society Series, edited by Catharine R. Stimpson. In late sixteenth-century Venice, nearly 60 percent of all patrician women joined convents, and only a minority of these women did so voluntarily. In trying to explain why unprecedented numbers of patrician women did not marry, historians have claimed that dowries became too expensive. However, Jutta Gisela Sperling debunks this myth and argues that the rise of forced vocations happened within the context of aristocratic culture and society.
